

The Seven Seal Judgments in the Book of Revelation

by Jeremy James

WW2 B-17 Flying Fortress

The chemtrail phenomenon, where the sky is streaked with vague white lines, is usually dismissed as the harmless accumulation of condensation trails made by commercial jet liners moving across the sky.

This explanation falls apart when we learn that, in general, modern jet engines cannot produce condensation trails (“con-trails”) and, where they do, the trails are very fine and quickly disperse. They do not and cannot persist for hours in the same way that chemtrails do.

By and large, the public accepted the con-trail explanation without demur. Many had seen movies of the Second World War where squadrons of a bomber known as the ‘Flying Fortress’ flew missions over Germany. This plane, the B-17, was not a jet. Rather it used very large propeller engines cooled by water-injection. Their massive prop-engines produced huge quantities of heat, which in turn required a large supply of water to keep them cool. The steam released by these cooling systems generated large condensation trails, similar to those in the photos below:

The commercial jets which have been in operation for several decades have a different cooling system known as a turbofan. Instead of relying on water as a coolant, a proportion (about 20 percent) of the compressed air coming from the engine is used to cool both the engine itself and the turbines. Without an on-board supply of water, such as that carried by the B-17s, they are unable to produce a significant amount of vapor. Whatever vapor they do produce comes solely from the small amount of water that can be extracted from the atmosphere at 35,000ft. It is barely visible and dissipates very quickly.

It is obvious, then, that the long duration ‘vapor’ trails that we see in the sky are being produced in some other way. In fact, analysis shows that they do not consist of water vapor at all, but are made of super-fine chemical constituents and particulates. The same ingredients are listed in geoengineering patents for devices that alter the weather and climatic conditions. This is why the trails are of long duration, unlike those produced by condensation, and spread slowly across the sky while retaining much of their opacity. Condensation or vapor trails cannot do this. Super-fine particulates can.

I first noticed these “chemtrails” in October 1985. The entire sky, which the same morning had been blue and cloudless, was criss-crossed with murky white lines. These all appeared to be at the same elevation and stretched like a net across the sky. Apart from this eccentric pattern, no clouds were visible.

“Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, that the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.”

- Job 21:29-30

Sky spraying is a major part of Satan's plan

In this paper we wish to show that these 'chemtrails' are almost certainly linked to the devastation that Satan intends to cause in the End Time. As such they are a sign that this fateful epoch is fast approaching.

By exploring the way the Enemy is using these trails to pollute our environment – the entire ecosystem of the earth which our Heavenly Father created – we may be able to establish a connection between the deliberate destructiveness of the chemtrail program and the various plagues described in the Book of Revelation.

In December 2014, a person purporting to be a pilot with the chemtrail program released some valuable information about the program and the people behind it. We cannot say whether the report was legitimate but the information was consistent with what we know about similar clandestine operations and the methods used to deceive the people involved.

The website mentioned on the billboard above has been run for many years by Dane Wigington. It has a wealth of good information about this dark topic.

Firstly the pilots and aviation crew on these flights, all of whom are drawn from the military, refer to the operation as Indigo Skyfold. The source said:

“Pilot navigation and maintenance crews are rotated constantly, and only spend about 18 months at one given base, to keep pilots and their families from making too many friends, and ending up with ‘loose lips’. They also rotate between day and night flights, one base for daytime flights, and one for night.”

The crews at each base are assigned a designated area for spraying, about 250 miles square, and follow the flight paths specified on their daily roster. They are strongly discouraged from discussing their work with each other: “Their superiors tell them it’s a matter of national security.” Anyone selected for this kind of work is unlikely to have any scruples about what they are doing or to worry too much about its implications.

According to the source, the justification for the program is broadly as follows:

“Without these flights our enemy’s newest technological weapons of war could easily penetrate America’s airspace, at will. We are dedicated and committed to keeping our allies safe from the same skyward threats, so we extend the arm of protection to those countries that support our efforts. Hostile nations are also building atmospheric shields, while at the same time trying to explore weaknesses in our ever-developing air and space based technologies.”

Many pilots probably see through this phony argument but take the work anyway on the grounds that it is very well paid and if they didn’t do it, someone else would. They are also shown disturbing videos of the great destruction that would befall the US mainland if the chemtrail program, “a defensive atmospheric weapon shield”, was not fully implemented.

They are not told what the sprays contain and if they are seen to ask questions they are automatically dropped from the program. A high proportion of the pilots and crew are single and have no children. They are therefore less likely to ask questions about the effect that the spraying may have on the general population.

The pilots themselves are selected from the high achievers in the Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard. Psychological testing is probably used to identify the psychopaths. According to the source, “Most of the pilots are hardened to humanity” and feel no pangs of conscience for any harm the spraying may cause.

The HAARP connection

Seemingly a third of all flights originate from small, remote islands. The same islands also appear to have HAARP projection devices. It is known that chemtrails, with their metallic constituents, are used to increase the potency of the worldwide HAARP network. The source also revealed something which we have not heard elsewhere, namely that the US Navy, and perhaps the navies of certain other countries, have been constructing sea-floor installations to support the worldwide HAARP network.

Every plane in the program is equipped with a flashpoint system which enables it to be destroyed remotely. In theory this system is intended to prevent a plane from accidentally crashing and exploding in a populated area but, as military veterans have attested, its real purpose is to prevent a pilot from turning over a top-secret military asset to a foreign party or a public agency.

“For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?” - Job 27:8

The source also reported that, with effect from January 2015, the program switched to a different type of spray. Not only would it be much more toxic, it would also be invisible. This meant the entire sky over selected parts of the world could be filled with a poisonous aerosol that the public couldn't detect.

Public meeting in 2015

In July 2015 a very unusual public meeting took place in northern California. The Shasta County board of supervisors took evidence from scientists and other experts over a period of nearly three hours on the environmental impact of chemtrails. As far as we can tell, this is the only time a public hearing of this kind has been held anywhere. The county authorities were clearly convinced that, not only did chemtrails exist, but that they were doing serious harm to the environment. The meeting attracted more members of the public than any previous meeting by the board and the testimonies, which we will discuss shortly, were filled with firsthand accounts of the way the chemicals and particulates in the chemtrails were harming Shasta County. Given the weight of evidence, the board decided to send a copy of the videotape of the meeting to State and Federal legislators.

Attendees at the Shasta County chemtrail meeting, July 2015.

This meeting and the videotape record should have provoked a serious political response and sparked a wider public discussion of the issue, but neither happened. The politicians, seemingly, ignored the residents of Shasta County, while news reports dismissed their concerns as New Age nuttiness. After all, what harm can come from mere condensation trails?

Expert Testimony

Here is a sample of their testimony:

Allan Buckmann, former Military Meteorologist, Fish & Game Biologist

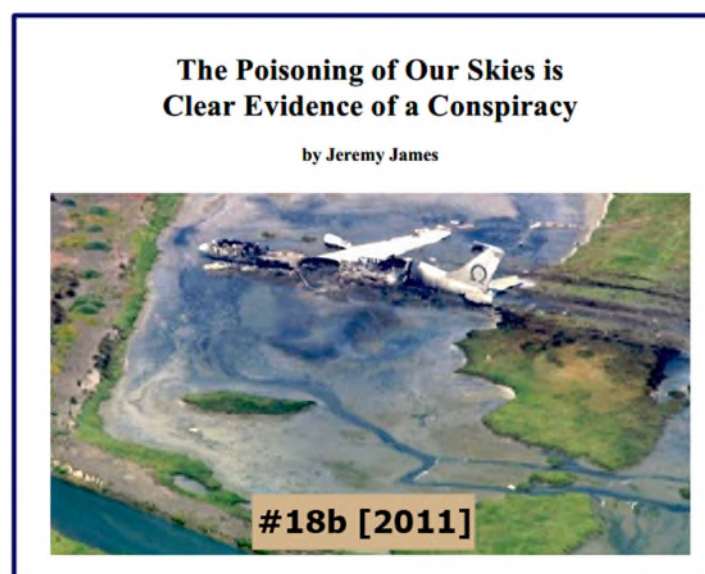

“I want to tell you that we are in very great danger from the pollution that is coming down over us. and we’ve been led astray by the military industrial complex. They are responsible for the cloud creation and weather manipulation programs... The metal compounds that are being used are environmentally dangerous. We need to be monitoring them. We need to be testing them... As a wildlife biologist I have been watching the ecosystem collapse... When you have aluminum overload in your streams you are killing your microbial bacteria and you are disrupting the entire ecosystem.... How did Monsanto know to create aluminum resistant plants?”

Iraja Sivasdas, member of Union of Concerned Scientists

“There’s a huge amount of aluminum being found because these sprays have aluminum, strontium, barium and manganese... Aluminum is found only in a bonded form [in nature]. It’s not common in free form but we are finding high rates of free aluminum in the soil, which is not natural.”

Dr Hamid Rabiee, Neurologist

“I am a neurologist practising... for 17 years and in the past 5 years I have seen the number of patients with Alzheimers disease, Parkinsons, and other neurodegenerative diseases tremendously increase – almost quadruple... These [metallic] nanoparticles basically trigger programmed cell death in the brain and that is the ultimate path we see in Alzheimers.”

Francis Mangles, Biologist with the US Forestry Service for 35 years

“We tested the rain [water]. It had 13,100 micrograms of aluminum per liter in the rain [water] in 2013. Normally it should be zero... It was in the one hundreds in 2000, and since 2010 it was into the one thousands, and the latest [is] 13,100. In the snow on Mount Shasta, pristine Mount Shasta, it was 61,000 micrograms per liter, four times the amount that is found in the soil up there. Where is this stuff coming from if it is not coming from the soil?!... The aquatic insects basically made a nosedive in 2006 to about 20% of normal. So far this year I have sampled 200 trout stomachs. 98 percent of them are empty... We are seeing a loss of major bird species. The ecosystem is unravelling – Audubon has been telling you that for years.”

Mark McCandlish, former Defense Industry Technician

“The materials that are going into the environment right now – aluminum-oxide nanoparticles and barium nanoparticles – these just happen to be the same materials that they use in nanothermite explosives. And so, when this stuff settles down out of the air and into the environment, it is small enough to be absorbed through the root structure of the trees in the forest. So when there is a forest fire – and there will be a forest fire – those fires burn dramatically hotter...

California fires 2019

“The Airforce conducted a study, starting in 1993. It was called In Vitro Toxicity of Aluminum Nanoparticles in Rat Alveolar Macrophages. That’s a real fancy way of saying ‘testing the effect of aluminum nanoparticles on the white blood cells in the little air sacs in your lung, the alveoli’. And what they found in this 8-year study was that these particles, when you are exposed to them long enough, it suppresses the ability of your white blood cells to defend you from airborne infections coming into your lungs. So it suppresses your immune system. But they also found that these same particles, once they get into your system, they can actually go through the barrier in each one of the cells. When they get inside the cells these particles can actually suppress the ability of mitochondria that are within the cells that help gobble up toxins and things that would be harmful to the nucleus and the reproduction process in the cells in your body. These processes are suppressed so, essentially, by breathing this material in, your immune system is dramatically suppressed.”

What are we to make of a political system which ignores testimony like this? We know it was hopelessly corrupt in 2015 and that the Military-Industrial Complex allows only a token form of democracy. This became more evident in 2019 when an unprecedented series of intense forest fires devastated large parts of northern California. Just as the residents of Shasta County predicted in 2015, the trees burned with a fury that no-one had seen before. Even experienced fire-fighters were astonished by the intensity with which they burned. The aluminum nanoparticles had been so thoroughly absorbed that, when lit, they acted like an accelerant, incinerating the trees with frightening speed and generating extremely high temperatures.

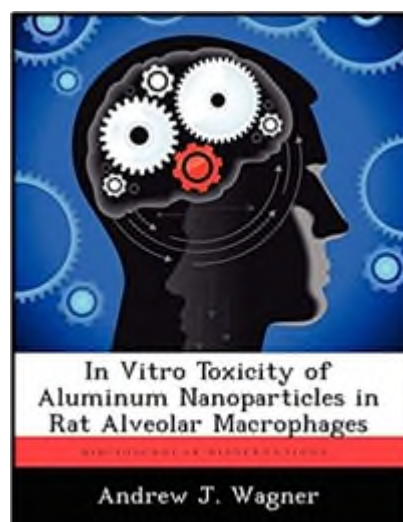

Nanoparticle poisoning of the human population

Nanoparticle poisoning may also contribute to the pandemic deception, allowing new types of respiratory illnesses to be classified as 'Covid'. As the US Airforce study proved, aluminum nanoparticles impair the immune system and suppress the ability of our white blood cells to counter infectious material entering via our lungs. In fact the study states that "significant toxicity" was seen after just 24 hours.

The study also notes in its conclusions that the "inability of the cells to function properly could contribute to the onset of infection since these impaired macrophages will not be able to quickly clear bacteria that make it to the alveoli (Lundborg, et al., 2001). In addition, synergistic effects might occur between materials and particles that were in the air with Al-NPs [aluminum nanoparticles]. Previously non-toxic materials or particles, usually consumed by macrophages, could contribute to fibrosis or other diseases in the lungs if they are not removed."

In short, the USAF knows that chemtrails are causing real harm to the human immune system. [The study, by Andrew J Wagner, is actually available on Amazon – see graphic]

An immensely cruel plan

The plan the Elite are following is immensely cruel and extremely well hidden. The majority of the population do not suspect anything. And when anyone tries to raise the alarm, they are brushed aside as fools and cranks. Why would anyone want to spray our skies with poison, the sceptics ask? It hardly seems possible to them that a group of people like this should exist anywhere on earth. Besides, if a group like this did exist, there is no way they could possibly worm their way into the highest positions of political, military and corporate power. And yet they do exist and, yes, they do have the influence they need to carry through with their plan. All of this is possible only because they worship and serve Satan.

We are in a deadly supernatural war, a war where most of the great battles are fought behind the scenes. Now and then we witness an evil event which hints at the existence of an even greater darkness behind it. But few are willing to believe that this darkness exists or that it is working ruthlessly to take control of the earth.

In order for their plan to succeed, the Elite know they must strike everywhere at once. They cannot risk a strategy based on the slow acquisition of one country after another. That might only provoke a backlash and reveal their ultimate intentions before they are ready.

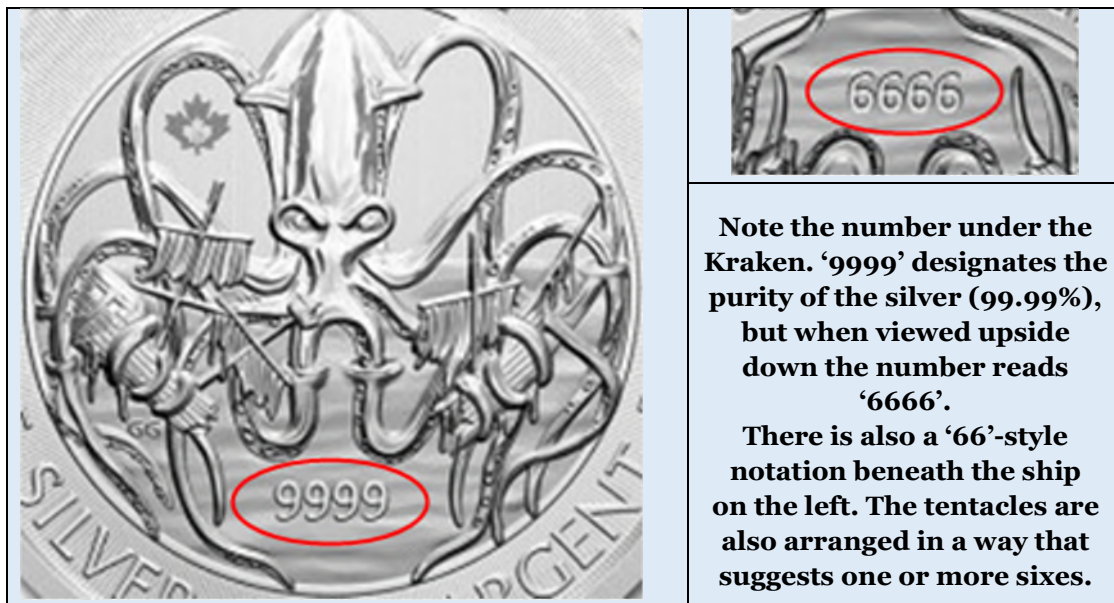

The 'Kraken' 2 oz. silver coin has just been minted by the Royal Canadian Mint. It would seem to carry a message on behalf of the British Crown (the Corona). The gigantic Kraken, the most fearsome of sea monsters, rises without warning from the depths and crushes everything within reach of its invincible tentacles. The 'Kraken' of the New World Order began its rise in 2020 and is rapidly entangling all nations in its deadly embrace.

Infiltration

In order to do this, they have infiltrated all governments and placed their agents in the highest positions of political power. Using their incredible wealth they have always been able to win others to their cause, though few of these co-opted assistants are shown the larger picture. By this means, slowly and silently, they have taken control of the media, the military, the judiciary, and the main centers of economic and corporate power in all countries.

As they have long planned, when the necessary preparations have been made, all of these nations will respond in the same way to the same crisis. This will be a greatly exaggerated threat which demands a radical response. We are seeing this with Covid, but further manufactured threats are on the way. All of these have been carefully planned, and some of them, unlike Covid, will be very real and very injurious to humanity.

The Kraken is a symbol of Satan and the control which he exercises over the earth.

On the threshold

We would appear to be living in the brief phase of history which precedes the events described in the Book of Revelation. The duration of this phase depends on the sovereign will of God. Satan can do nothing unless God first gives him permission. For countless generations the Holy Spirit has held this darkness at bay and allowed the Light of Christ to refresh our souls. However, as the Word of God has warned, a time must come when the leaders of humanity, in the rebellious pride of their fallen nature, will reject all that is godly and rule exclusively in accordance with their occult and materialistic values. The Elite, strongest and most powerful group on earth, will control everyone else, while the Elite themselves will be controlled by Satan.

This is where we are heading. The Elite are on the verge of securing an iron grip over the whole of mankind. A powerful totalitarian world government is in formation. Once the necessary institutions are in place, Satan will send his 'anointed one', the Antichrist, to rule the earth in his name.

The significance of sky spraying

The Bible tells us that, if the Antichrist and his wicked regime were allowed to rule on earth beyond the strict time limit set by God in the Book of Revelation, all life would be destroyed.

This is what makes the chemtrail program so significant. It covers the entire surface of the earth, both land and sea, and sends down a steady cocktail of poisonous substances. What is more, as we have seen, the toxicity of these substances would seem to be increasing. This is pharmakeia or sorcery on a phenomenal scale.

Some Bible commentators have argued that the plagues in the Book of Revelation are not necessarily in sequence and that some of them may already have taken place. We see no basis for this. Together they constitute God's ultimate judgment upon the rebellious, sin-filled, idol-worshipping masses of humanity, a judgment which in His Mercy he has deferred for a considerable time.

The Great Day of the LORD, as it is known (Zephaniah 1:14), consists of a series of punitive judgments which offer mankind one final opportunity to repent. They comprise three related sets: the Seven Seals, the Seven Trumpets, and the Seven Vials or Bowls. The second and third set are contained within the Seventh Seal, the last judgment in the first set. They cannot take place until the first six Seal judgments have come upon the earth.

The Seventh Seal, conceived as a judgment, is unique in that it comprises nothing more than a declaration! The message itself is so severe and so horrifying that it qualifies as a judgment. The opening of the Seventh Seal is a general announcement to the world that another series of judgments is about to commence, a series so severe that men will shake with terror upon hearing it. The awesome solemnity of this moment is denoted by the silence in heaven which follows the opening of the Seventh Seal:

“And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.”
(Revelation 8:1)

It is hard to believe that the wonderful chorus of praise which has filled heaven continuously since the beginning of Creation should suddenly stop, if only for half an hour. It would seem that our Heavenly Father has authorized this pause to acknowledge, as it were, the terrible severity of what is about to happen.

The silence in heaven would also indicate that the great harvest of martyrs has ended, that no more souls on earth are repenting, at least for now. The jubilation that greets the arrival of each new entrant has – for the time being – gone silent.

The Four Horsemen

The initial Seal Judgments send, in succession, Four Horsemen.

The first introduces a rider on a white horse who is carrying a “bow”:

“And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.” (Revelation 6:2)

Virtually all translations refer to the “bow” only, but since the Greek word in the original is toxon [Strong’s G5115], the translation should read “bow and arrows.” The archer in Greek warfare was always armed with a bow and a set of arrows, never a bow on its own. Furthermore, the Greeks normally dipped their arrows in poison to make them more lethal on the field of battle. The English word, “toxic”, comes directly from the Greek toxikon, a poison-tipped arrow.

Some commentators have wrestled with the meaning of the “bow” in this passage since, by itself, it hardly qualifies as a weapon. However, the context implies that all four horsemen are bearing deadly weapons. This is why they are portrayed as mortal threats to mankind.

The modern equivalent of the “poison-tipped arrow”, we would suggest, is a vaccine or poison-tipped syringe. If we take that interpretation, then it is much easier to understand how a world leader might use such a device to embark on a campaign of conquest. The “white horse”, on the other hand, would appear to symbolize peaceful intentions. In this way, at least initially, his deadly work will not arouse suspicions.

It should be noted also that every vaccine is administered by a person in a white coat or gown.

Hercules and the Hydra

After he killed the Hydra, Hercules dipped his arrows in his victim’s blood. He then used one of these poisoned arrows to kill the Centaur. As he lay dying, the Centaur gave his blood-soaked tunic to the wife of Hercules, telling her (deceitfully) that it would arouse her husband’s passion for her. She kept the tunic for several years and, when Hercules began to pursue another woman, she gave it to him. When he took hold of it, the poisoned blood of the Hydra entered his body and slowly killed him.

Hercules killing the Hydra, the monster with many heads

Compare the Hydra with the Kraken (discussed earlier).

Some people foolishly imagine that mankind got past the threat of ‘mutual assured destruction’ with the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989. If these deadly nuclear devices had been around for decades, they reasoned, and had not been used since 1945, then we must have come of age. Man was now mature enough to manage his own destiny. But thermonuclear devices do not exist, and both the Cold War and the Cuban Missile Crisis were a hoax!

The crisis we face today, however, where the Elite intend to inject the whole of humanity with an unknown substance, is very real. In a sense, we are now in the midst of a REAL version of the ‘Cuban Missile Crisis’, where the threat comes, not from missiles, but from vaccines. And this time the threat is worldwide and grounded in established science.

For the first time in history, Satan has an opportunity to inflict serious physical harm on the whole of humanity.

The Second Seal

The Second Seal introduces a rider on a red horse:

“And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.”

(Revelation 6:4)

After the nations have been seriously weakened by the rider on the white horse, especially those which upheld the principles of freedom and democracy, the stage is set for a major worldwide conflict. The structures and institutions which until then had maintained stability and peace across the world were no longer working. This individual, the rider on the red horse, now possessed exceptional military power and was using it to foment conflict and slaughter on a scale the world had never seen.

The Third Seal

The Third Seal introduces a rider on a black horse:

“And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.”

(Revelation 6:5-6)

A “penny” was a silver coin known as a denarius. It was of much greater value than the translation might suggest. Also, a “measure” of wheat or barley was just enough to feed a person at one sitting. For example, at the feeding of the five thousand, when Jesus asked the Apostles to distribute bread to everyone, they were taken aback:

“He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?” (Mark 6:37)

If there were 10,000 people present (men, women and children), then 200 denarii would have been sufficient to buy bread for everyone. One denarius could feed around fifty people. This meant that the price of wheat and barley in Revelation 6:6 is greatly inflated and well beyond the means of the average person. Only the very rich will be able to avoid starvation and famine when the Third Seal is opened. The verse also suggests that the more select foods which the rich enjoy, designated by “the [olive] oil and the wine”, will not be in short supply.

- threats to our food supply

There has been a systematic attempt over several decades to take greater control of the world’s food supply. Numerous regulations have been introduced, especially in the European Union, with its various agricultural and environment programs, which dictate what can and cannot be grown. Farmers are even paid a subsidy to leave their fields lying idle. Meanwhile, in countries like the Congo, a great deal of food is imported which could just as easily be grown locally.

Perhaps the most “scientific” initiative to seize control of the food supply is through the use of genetically modified crops. Farmers are legally obliged to purchase the seed for next year’s crop from the corporation which owns the patent on the grain in question. The food itself is of lesser quality and harmful to our metabolism in the longer term.

We are also seeing numerous attempts to develop alternatives to meat using protein substitutes, flavor enhancing technology, and in some cases insects or insect larvae. For a more detailed discussion of this subject see our paper, The War on Meat: A Sign of the End Time (#202). The war on meat makes use of the global warming hoax, where livestock are blamed for producing excess amounts of ‘greenhouse gases.’ This phony threat is then used to demand a reduction in livestock and promote a greater dependence on grains, especially GMOs, in the human food supply.

A large proportion of the world's food supply is transported over long distances. Very little of our food is grown locally. This means that large urban populations are totally reliant for their daily nutrition on fast, efficient haulage services and refrigerated storage facilities. If for some reason these services were disrupted then immense human suffering would result, even though the shortages would have nothing to do with food production per se.

“Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth, that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds; Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he? He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.” - Job 20:4-8

- four weapons directed at our food supply

In addition to these, the Enemy has four deadly weapons at his disposal which can be used to create serious food shortages in almost any part of the world. These are (1) chemtrails, which can poison crops and livestock, (2) cyber attacks on critical infrastructure, which co-ordinate the production and distribution of food, (3) hoax pandemics, which enable the Elite to shut down meat-processing plants and other food production and distribution facilities, and (4) genetically engineered pathogens which attack crops and livestock. These four deadly weapons were unknown 50 years ago!

Over the past decade or so the technology behind them has been sharpened and refined. The advent of Artificial Intelligence, which has the power to solve astonishing logistical problems in real time, has also made it possible to combine these four weapons in highly sophisticated ways to both increase their potency and disguise their purpose.

In recent years a number of software companies have won major contracts to protect big corporations in America and Europe from serious cyber attacks. The drawback with this approach is that, if the cyber-security software in one of these corporations is successfully hacked, every other corporation using the same security software is vulnerable to attack.

One such software company is SolarWinds which markets a security and network surveillance product called Orion. A few weeks ago the updates prepared for Orion were hacked. When customers downloaded the updates their computer security was fatally compromised. About 18,000 corporations were affected. Given that the SolarWinds client base includes 425 of the Fortune 500 companies, as well as the top 10 telecom companies in the US, the damage that a breach of this kind could cause is phenomenal, especially if it was designed specifically to cause havoc and not as a means of extracting ransom payments.

We know the Elite intend to use cyber attacks on critical systems and infrastructure to clear the way for a New World Order. In fact, they appear to regard the massive social and economic disruption caused by their fake 'Covid pandemic' as minor in comparison with the mayhem they are planning to cause by cyber attacks on the world financial system, power-generation utilities, and international online communications. The attacks will also be used to heighten international political tensions by holding Russia and/or China responsible.

In July of this year, Klaus Schwab, head of the World Economic Forum, made the following alarming 'prediction':

“We all know, but still pay insufficient attention to, the frightening scenario of a comprehensive cyber attack that could bring a complete halt to the power supply, transportation, hospital services – our society as a whole. The Covid-19 crisis would be seen in this respect as a small disturbance in comparison to a major cyber-attack.”

He went on to refer to “our unpreparedness for a potential cyber-pandemic.”

Cyber-pandemic? The sinister vista they have prepared for us is so destructive that they have even given it a classy new name.

Jeremy Jurgens, managing director of the World Economic Forum, put it this way: “I believe that there will be another crisis. It will be more significant. It will be faster than what we’ve seen with Covid. The impact will be greater and, as a result, the economic and social implications will be even more significant.”

As we said in our last paper with reference to the the Covid vaccine program (#255), Satan now has in his possession an arsenal of weapons that vastly exceeds, in sheer power, toxicity and destructiveness, anything he has possessed in the past. It has taken him about 4,500 years to arrive at this point. It's as if 2021 marks the culmination of a multi-faceted strategic program, a dark scheme forged in the depths of hell, that will enable him to inflict more turmoil, suffering and death on the whole of humanity than anyone – even the most deranged tyrant – had ever thought possible.

The Fourth Seal

The Fourth Seal is an explosive fusion of the three Seals that went before it:

“And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.” (Revelation 6:7-8)

The reference to the deaths caused by “the beasts of the earth” may include diseases transmitted to humans by genetically modified insects such as the mosquito or the tsetse fly. Bill Gates already has approval to release GM mosquitoes – known as strain OX513A of Aedes aegypti – in the state of Florida in 2021. A great many people objected to this plan but, as we all know, the voice of the people is now a quaint relic of a bygone age. The Children of Wickedness are simply doing as they please.

GM mosquitoes have already been released in the Cayman Islands and Brazil. We are being told that the Elite have only the most altruistic motives for conducting these high-risk experiments. Seemingly they are supposed to reduce the incidence of diseases like malaria by curtailing the life cycle of mosquitoes and reducing their overall population. Even if their intentions were noble, this is a dangerous, and irreversible, interference with insect ecology and could easily spread across the entire earth. However, we know that many of the leading players in the field of genetics, both on the research side and the funding side, are eugenicists, that their intentions are not noble, and that any major project they undertake is likely to be connected in some way with the NWO plan to reduce the human population.

Mosquito

Locust

- locusts

The beasts of the earth may also include locusts. In fact, given Satan’s propensity to imitate God, he will probably use locust swarms in many parts of the world to destroy the local food supply. By doing this he will be imitating one of the plagues described in the Book of Exodus. Sadly, this strategy may already be under way on the continent of Africa. The locust swarms in Kenya in 2020 were the worst by far in 70 years. They also struck many other countries in large numbers, both in Africa and elsewhere, including Ethiopia, Uganda, Somalia, Eritrea, India, Pakistan, Iran, Yemen, Oman and Saudi Arabia.

Plagues of locusts are known to occur every twenty-five years or so, depending on climatic conditions and other factors. However, despite the knowledge and experience of agricultural scientists and entomologists in these countries, the plague of 2020 arrived without warning and inflicted enormous damage to crops and trees. Given that the food supply of around 10 percent of the population of the world is grown in areas inhabited by locusts, plagues of this magnitude in successive years could cause widespread famine.

The Word of God records, in Revelation 6:8, that one quarter of the population of the earth will die in the Fourth Seal judgment. This is an astounding statistic. Two thousand million people. This is equivalent to about 6 times the entire population of the United States.

The Fifth Seal

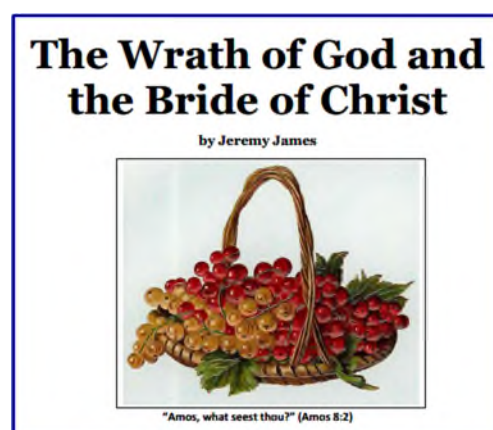

The Fifth Seal speaks of a worldwide killing spree directed specifically at anyone who professes faith in Jesus Christ. These are not victims of war, famine or pestilence, but innocent victims who are selected and hunted down simply because they are Christian:

“And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.” (Revelation 6:9-11)

This awful campaign of slaughter will probably be disguised to some extent by the chaos and suffering endured by the wider population. The Antichrist has arrived on the scene, possibly as early as the First Seal – he may have been the rider on the white horse – and is now orchestrating the destruction of all who oppose him.

The Bride of Christ

These saints ask to be avenged. They do so because they are not part of the Body of Christ. They are saved, of course, and will dwell with Christ in eternity, but they are not constituent members of the Bride. They will attend the Wedding Feast but as guests only, dressed in the “white robes” which they have just received. (See also Matthew 22:12-13: “And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”)

The martyr Stephen exemplifies the attitude or spiritual disposition of the Bride. At the point of death, he did not seek to be avenged: “And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.” (Acts 7:59-60)

For a more detailed examination of the Church and the Rapture, see our earlier paper, The Wrath of God and the Bride of Christ (#199).

The Sixth Seal

The opening of the Sixth Seal signals a great transition. Up to now we have been witnessing the permissive will of God, where thoroughly evil men have conspired together to develop deadly weapons based on advanced technology and use them to inflict appalling suffering and death on mankind. God, in His sovereign judgment, stood back and allowed it to happen. With the Sixth Seal, however, we see a series of events which, as far as we can tell, could only have been produced by God Himself:

“And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;
And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.
And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;
And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:
For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?”

(Revelation 6:12-17)

Joel 2:31 cites the same awesome events – the blackening of the sun and the reddening of the moon – as the celestial signs that will inaugurate for the Great Day of the LORD:

“The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.”

John, in Revelation, tells us also that the stars will disappear. He echoes Isaiah when he describes the tremendous shaking that the earth will experience at this time, striking everyone with unreasoning terror and driving them frantically to find a place of refuge:

“And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth...

To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.” (Isaiah 2:19 & 21)

The first five Seal Judgments are seemingly the product of man’s wicked, rebellious imagination, but with the Sixth Seal we witness the Wrath of God Himself. This would suggest that the first half of the Tribulation will comprise the first five Seal Judgments, but that the Wrath of God, in its full extent, is triggered only when the Antichrist commits the abomination of desolation in the Temple.

This has prompted some respected Bible commentators to propose that, since the Church is removed before the Wrath of God is poured out, the Rapture must occur just prior to the desecration in the Temple (i.e. a mid-Tribulation Rapture). However, if we take all of the passages of Scripture that refer to these events, and to the Rapture itself, we find that the Church is removed before the seven-year Tribulation begins (i.e. a pre-Tribulation Rapture). See our earlier papers on this subject – #81, #91, #107, and #199.

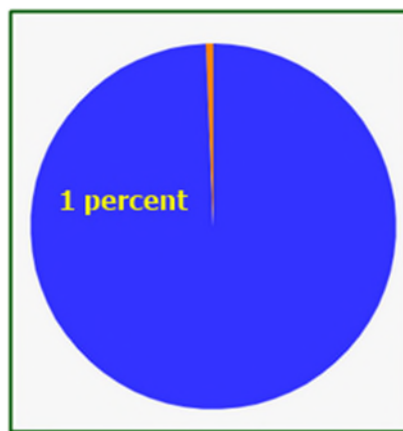

See also #78 regarding the suffering and persecution that the Church may undergo before the Rapture. Sadly, attempts are being made by Wikipedia and others to downplay, ignore or misrepresent the number of Christians murdered for their faith throughout history. For example, 21 years after the death of Muhammad, Islam ruled over an area as large as the Roman Empire, a feat accomplished only through the murder or forced conversion of virtually all of the Christians in North Africa and about half of those in the Middle East: “The most striking of all effects produced by the Arab conquest of North Africa was the gradual but almost complete disappearance of Christianity.” – Will Durant. These horrifying facts are being forgotten.

CONCLUSION

The spiritual conditions that are needed before the awful events described in the Book of Revelation can begin are already in evidence today. Indeed, the LORD in His Mercy gave us a checklist in 2 Timothy 3:1-8.

The necessary technology is also in place. For the first time in history, a group of influential men are on the threshold of implementing a program which, if it is 'successful', is capable of killing billions of people.

In total about 75 million soldiers and civilians were killed in the Second World War. This is a truly horrifying statistic, but it is only 1 percent of the number that could be seriously injured by a deadly vaccine.

Satan's power to harm mankind has greatly increased

Satan has never had this kind of power before. His ability to inflict harm on mankind has increased by nearly a hundredfold in just a few decades.

Those who spread lies on his behalf have made extensive efforts to hide the malice behind his intentions. Apart from a small number of born-again Christians, virtually no-one on earth has any idea that this threat is looming, that it has been in preparation for thousands of years, and that – as far as we can tell – the people behind it have every intention of carrying it out.

In our analysis of the Seal Judgments we have tried to show how little time is left. We cannot predict the future, but we can make full use of all that the LORD in His Mercy has revealed. Jesus told us to "Watch!" – which implies that we have the ability to see and understand the signs of the End Time – and prepare ourselves accordingly. The Apostle Paul also told us to come together regularly in prayer and exhortation, "and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching" (Hebrews 10:25). He is saying that, if we are faithful to God's Word, we will be able to "see the day approaching", by which he means the Great Day of the LORD.

We cannot say what trials the church may endure before the Rapture, but we can live out the remainder of our days in the joy and certainty that the LORD will do everything He promised to do!

Magic and sorcery

The Book of Acts tells of an experienced occult practitioner who used sorcery (mageia) to control others:

“But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city [Samaria] used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.” (Acts 8:9-11)

The Bible never expands on the term “sorceries” but the meaning of the original Greek, mageuo (singular) and mageia (plural), is fairly evident. The KJV also translates another Greek word, pharmakeia, as “sorcery.” Believers at that time would have known exactly what was meant. Today we understand these words to mean the same rituals and practices found in witchcraft, including the use of psychotropic drugs. This meant Simon was able to summon demons. We get a further hint of this in the word existemi, which the KJV translates as “bewitched.” The Greek means ‘to throw out of position, to displace’ (Thayer). If we were to express this in New Age terms, Simon was able to put the people of Samaria into an altered state of consciousness.

Simon Magus offers money to the Apostle Peter in return for the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Apostle Peter could see that Simon was unable to distinguish between the work of the Holy Spirit and the powers of darkness. He craved power, not freedom in Christ. When seen in this light, Peter’s stinging rebuke is easier to understand:

“Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.”

(Acts 8:22-23)

A confederacy of magicians

The world today is ruled by men just like Simon of Samaria. They want the power of the magus, the skilled magician who can call upon demons to assist him. By definition, they hate Christ. They are trapped in the gall of bitterness and the bond of iniquity.

These men are now working together to accomplish what they were unable to do individually, namely to bewitch or hypnotize the entire population of the earth, just as Simon “bewitched” the people of Samaria. Satan demands that they do this on his behalf. By putting the nations in an altered state of consciousness, they can blind the masses to dangers that might otherwise be as plain as a pikestaff. This is why great swathes of humanity today are unable to comprehend the terrible threat posed by a worldwide vaccination program. As a result, they are willing to allow an unknown drug, replete with genetic components, to be injected into their bloodstream.

There is not much to choose between the Serpent’s venom and the Hydra’s blood.

The life is in the blood

As the Word of God tells us, the life is in the blood:

“...for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof:
whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.”

(Leviticus 17:14)

We are warned again and again by our Heavenly Father to never consume the blood or life essence of any animal. Why, then, is the Enemy so eager to inject into the blood of every human being a sequence of genetic information designed by man himself? Some of this genetic material has come from animal species, not to mention the flesh of little children. Is this not a clear violation of a commandment that God gave to all mankind from the earliest times?

We are also warned to never mix seed in this way! The Covid vaccines are a highly sophisticated way of defiling mankind in the sight of an awesomely Holy God.

Many can recognize the physical dangers posed by these vaccines, but few seem to be aware of the potential spiritual implications. Satan is doing all he can to widen the divide between man and God. These vaccines could easily possess elements that heighten the rebelliousness that is already embedded in our fallen nature. They may impinge in subtle ways on our mental autonomy, in much the same way that a psychotropic drug interferes with our normal cognition, and create delusional states.

Without the blood of Christ we are lost, both physically and spiritually! This is why Jesus asked that we continue to remind ourselves of this overwhelming truth by coming together regularly and celebrating the Lord's Supper. We should hardly be surprised that this is something the pandemic lockdowns have been designed to prevent! The Zoomers can zoom all they like, but by their failure to come together regularly and celebrate the Lord's Supper they are doing themselves real spiritual harm.

This is what the Enemy wants! The pastors have failed their flocks, and countless professing Christians have been gulled by the scent of rebellion. They no longer know what it means to obey God's Word. Instead of doing what it plainly says, they reinterpret, test and modify His indelible precepts to fit their vain expectations.

The Bible says: “Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word” (Isaiah 66:5). But how many hear as God intended? And how many tremble at His Word?

Even before the outer plagues get rolling, the most dangerous plague of all is raging in the hearts of men – “For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft” (1 Samuel 15:23).
